Historical Summary

---

The Faculty Governance and Procedures Committee (FGPC) is responsible for issues of faculty governance and procedures, including organizing and operating faculty meetings (which encompasses preparation of agendas as well as review of the minutes); conducting elections of faculty to various elected committees and other elected positions; appointing faculty to non-elected committees and standing tripartite committees; advising, upon request of the President or the Provost/Dean of the Faculty, on the appointment of faculty members to special or ad hoc committees; reviewing periodically the structure, charge and composition of faculty committees and election procedures; serving in grievance proceedings as provided in the Code of Academic Freedom and Tenure; and serving as a forum for discussion of issues concerning faculty governance and procedures and referring issues as it deems appropriate to faculty committees and meetings for discussion and action (Barnard Faculty Committees Website 4/1/2024).

Access

This collection has no restrictions. This collection is located on-site.

Accruals

Additions are expected.

Acquisition Information

The draft of the Code of Academic Freedom and Tenure with memo from Faculty Executive Committee was transferred to the Barnard Archives in 1978 from a library staff member named Natalie Sonevytsky. Other materials related to the Faculty Planning Committee were transferred to the Barnard Archives in 2015 and 2024; the source of the acquisition is unknown.

Processing History

In April 2024, Olivia Newsome moved this collection from a larger collection of faculty committees, BC06.01, to the current collection, BC06.09, to highlight this long-standing committee. Olivia Newsome also updated the finding aid at this time. In July 2024, Olivia Newsome processed an additional accrual.

Publication Rights

Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Barnard College Archives. The Barnard College Archives approves permission to publish that which it physically owns; the responsibility to secure copyright permission rests with the patron.

Reproduction Restrictions

Reproductions can be made for research purposes.
