Collection Scope and Content Summary

This collection consists of film and video recordings related to or produced by Barnard College. Included are recordings of campus events and performances, candid footage of campus life, taped clips of television shows featuring Barnard or people affiliated with Barnard, documentaries related to Barnard or people affiliated with Barnard, and course-related recordings. Formats of recordings include 8mm and 16mm film, VHS tapes, DVDs, DVCAM tapes, DV tapes, MiniDV tapes, and Beta tapes.

Of special interest are early films of campus life and the Greek Games from the 1920s-1940s and recordings of lectures and events featuring prominent visitors, including June Jordan, Alice Walker, Ntozake Shange, Marian Wright Edelman, Betty Friedan, Elie Wiesel, Laurie Anderson, Joan Didion, Ed Koch, Gwendolyn Brooks, and Julian Bond. Of additional interest are recordings of Dance Uptown performances from 1974 through 1991 and the On Dance lecture and panel series from 2000 through 2010. This collection also features recordings of significant campus events, including the Barnard Organization of Soul Sisters Celebration of Black Womanhood, commencements and inaugurations, award ceremonies, and annual theatrical, dance, and musical performances.

This collection is comprised of multiple format-based collections and groupings of moving image materials with various unknown provenances. They are brought together in this collection, BC18 Moving Image collection, to provide ease of access to the bulk of the Archives' Barnard-related and Barnard-produced moving image materials created prior to 2012. Many of the items in this collection were produced by entities at Barnard College, including the departments of Dance, Theatre, and Music; the Barnard Center for Research on Women; and other offices, often in conjunction with the Media Services office. Other recordings, particularly the television clips and documentaries, were produced by entities external to Barnard.

Access

The majority of this collection can only be viewed on-site, due to intellectual property and student records restrictions.

Publication Rights

Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Barnard Archives and Special Collections. The Barnard College Archives approves permission to publish that which it physically owns; the responsibility to secure copyright permission rests with the patron. Large portions of this collection may not be reproduced due to copyright and student records restrictions.

Acquisition Information

Portions of the recordings in Series 2, Video recordings, were transferred to the Archives from Communications and the Development Office in the 2000s as well as from the Instructional Media and Technology Services group in 2013. The entirety of Series 3, Media Services recordings, was created by Media Services and transferred to the Archives from the Barnard Library in 2014. The acquisition date and source of the remainder of the collection is unknown.

Accruals

No additions are expected; Barnard-produced or Barnard-related moving images created after 2011 are housed with the appropriate collection for the office, department, or other creator.

Processing History

This collection was processed and the finding aid written by Martha Tenney in July 2015. In 2024, Adia Augustin edited and incorporated existing inventories of the collection into the finding aid.

Alternative Forms of Materials:

Alternative Forms of Materials

The films in this series were preserved and transferred to Beta and VHS tape with the assistance of a grant from the Women's Film Preservation Fund of the New York Women in Film and Television, Inc. in 2002. In addition to these transfers, which are included in this series, digitized transfers of the majority of the films exist and may be requested from the Archives at archives@barnard.edu.

Series Scope and Content Summary

This series contains recordings on 8mm and 16mm film as well as video transfers of the recordings. The recordings include promotional films and documentaries produced about Barnard, footage of classes and class trips, footage of Greek Games and athletics events, instructional physical education films, films created by students showing campus life, and recordings of campus events. Annie Nathan Meyer, Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve, and Dr. Agnes R. Wayman are among the people depicted in the films.

Series Arrangement

The recordings in this series are partially arranged according to assigned ID numbers (which are roughly chronological) and partially arranged in order as received. Boxes 5-12 conform to a legacy item-level inventory compiled by the Archives, which has been incorporated into the finding aid. Boxes 13-15 are arranged in roughly chronological order and conform to a legacy item-level inventory, which has been incorporated into the finding aid. Boxes 16-17 conform to a print item-level inventory included in box 16. Boxes 20-21 correspond to item-level inventories included in accession records (attached to the finding aid). Box 23 conforms to a legacy item-level inventory (incorporated into the finding aid).

Series Scope and Content Summary

This series contains video recordings on a variety of formats, including VHS, DVD, and MiniDV tape. The contents include recordings of campus events; visits, lectures, and panels featuring prominent visitors; documentaries and television programs that mention Barnard or utilize materials from the Barnard Archives; and course-related recordings. Of special interest are recordings of lectures and panels featuring June Jordan, Alice Walker, Ntozake Shange, Marian Wright Edelman, Betty Friedan, Elie Wiesel, Laurie Anderson, Joan Didion, and Ed Koch. Also of interest are recordings of significant campus events such as the BOSS Celebration of Black Womanhood, commencements, and inaugurations. Cartons 13-15 are comprised of video clips recorded from television shows that mention or feature Barnard or Barnard-affiliated people and were likely compiled by the Office of Public Relations/Communications.

Series Arrangement

This series is arranged into two subseries. The first subseries, which is comprised of various formats of physical media, is arranged in roughly chronological order and was inventoried in two separate item-level inventories, which have been incorporated into the finding aid (save for one box, box 45, which is uninventoried). The second subseries is comprised of digital files which are contained on hard drives and have not been transferred or formally inventoried (a file listing is attached to the finding aid).

Series Scope and Content Summary

This series consists of recordings of campus events, performances, and course-related events recorded by Barnard's Media Services office. Formats include DVDs, MiniDVs, VHS tapes, and digital files. Of special interest are recordings of lectures and panels featuring Gwendolyn Brooks, Julian Bond, Anna Quindlen; recordings of the Dance Uptown performance series; recordings of annual Dance and Theatre departmental performances; and recordings of the On Dance lecture and panel series.
