Historical Background

The Judicial Council, founded in 1964, was a nine-member committee of students, faculty, and administration focused on non-academic infractions of the Rules of Conduct (Barnard Alumnae, 1968, page 28). As of the writing of this finding aid in April 2024, the Judicial Council no longer exists. The exact end date is unknown.

Processing History

In March 2024, Olivia Newsome moved this collection from a previous record group, BC06 (Faculty Committees), to the current record group, BC19 (Committees), to reflect the fact that this is not a faculty committee. Olivia Newsome also updated the finding aid at this time.

Publication Rights

Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Barnard College Archives. The Barnard College Archives approves permission to publish that which it physically owns; the responsibility to secure copyright permission rests with the patron
