Biography

Lucyle Hook was born in Quanah, Texas, in 1901. She attended the Texas Woman's University, received an M.A. from Columbia University, and her Ph.D. from New York University. Lucyle Hook began teaching at Barnard as a visiting professor, filling in for Minor Latham, and ended up staying at Barnard for 21 years. In 1967 she was appointed as Professor Emeritus of the English Department. In addition to her teaching career at Barnard College, Lucyle Hook travelled the world. She took time off from Barnard to serve as the head of the American College for Girls in Turkey, and travelled throughout the Middle East and Africa. She also took numerous research trips abroad to Greece and London. A travel scholarship fund for Barnard students was named in her honor. She passed away in 2003 at the age of 103.
