Collection Scope and Content Summary

The Joy Greenberg Papers mostly consists of correspondance between Greenberg and her parents via letters as well as photographs from her time as a student at Barnard College. Most of the photographs are dated between 1967 to 1971 and some are annotated on the back. The papers also include Greenberg's student id cards from 1969 and 1970, a newspaper clipping about dormitory life at Barnard, and an essay titled "Ode of 616" about her life and friends at Barnard College.
