Biographical / Historical

Jack Delano (1914-1997) - Born Jacob Ovcharov in Ukraine, Jack Delano was a photographer, artist, and composer who lived in Puerto Rico. Delano attended the Settlement Music School and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, where he studied art and music. Early in his career he was a photographer for the Farm Security Administration (FSA). He moved to Puerto Rico after completing his service in the United States Army and worked as an illustrator, cartoonist, composer, producer, and film director. He served as Chief Administrator at WIPR-TV and created films at the Community Division of the Department of Public Education (DIVEDCO).

Irene Delano (1919-1982) - Irene Delano (néé Esser) was a graphic artist in Puerto Rico. Born in Detroit, Michigan, Delano attended the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and studied painting. She moved to Puerto Rico in 1946, where she designed publications for the Information Division of the Office of the Governor of San Juan. She established a graphic arts workshop and served as Director of DIVEDCO. She designed and illustrated posters, books, and tourism material and printed fine art.

Collection Inventory

Series I: Puerto Rico, 1938-1997

Physical Description: 9.4 linear feet Boxes 1-14 (twelve manuscript boxes, two flat boxes (boxes 6-7), mapcase folders)

Scope and Contents

This series consists of records related to Jack and Irene Delano's professional life in Puerto Rico, including their work with WIPR-TV and DIVEDCO (División de Educación de la Comunidad; Puerto Rican Division of Community Education). Records reflect Jack Delano's work on many notable WIPR programs, including Festival Casals, a festival honoring classical musician Pablo Casals, founded in 1956. Also included are correspondence and itineraries from Delano's UNESCO-funded research trip to document contemporary filmmaking methods in other countries.

DIVEDCO materials document Delano films such as Los Peloteros, posters they designed, and the printing workshop Irene established, which included notable artists such as Rafael Tufiño and Lorenzo Homar as members.

Also included are plans for buildings, exhibits, and stage performances designed by Jack Delano.

Subseries I.1: WIPR, 1949-1997

Scope and Contents

This subseries contains records relating to the establishment and operation of WIPR-TV, including correspondence, contracts, scripts, program proposals, film permits, and documents related to Festival Casals. Organized alphabetically by folder title.

Series II: Photographs, 1913-1999

Physical Description: 103.9 linear feet Boxes 15-132 (82 manuscript boxes, 37 flat boxes (flats 30-39, 64-92, 98-104, 120-121))

Scope and Contents

This series documents Jack Delano's career as a photographer, including his work with the FSA in the 1930s to early 1940s, the Office of War Information (OWI) during World War II, and the Office of Information (La Oficina de Información) after he moved to Puerto Rico. This series also contains photographs from his UNESCO trip (1960), photographs of his exhibits, and personal photographs with family and friends.

Also included are photographs by others, such as Edwin and Louise Roskam, Jack and Irene's son Pablo Delano, and numerous participants in the Photographers of Playa Ponce Project, a program teaching photography to local youth. Irene designed calendars, and Jack designed an exhibit based on the project.

Arrangement

This series is organized into five subseries: Puerto Rico, Farm Security Administration, UNESCO, Personal, and Photography by Others. Each subseries is arranged with prints followed by negatives and slides. Each is housed separately.

Processing Information:

Processing Information

The Puerto Rico subseries was processed in two separate but overlapping alphabetical groupings.

Subseries II.1: Puerto Rico, 1938-1994

Scope and Contents

This subseries contains professional photographs taken in Puerto Rico by Jack Delano, including images in Puerto Rico Mío. Organized alphabetically by folder title. Unidentified photographs are filed at the end of the subseries with a general description of content.

Subseries VII.2: Newspapers, 1824-1873, 1950-1996

Scope and Contents

The Newspapers subseries contains significant runs of Barrytown Explorer, Island Times, and La Gaceta. Organized by newspaper name and chronologically therein. Barrytown Explorer is an upstate New York monthly newspaper that Laura Delano contributed to regularly which occasionally included illustrations by Jack Delano (noted when identified). Island Times was a Puerto Rican newspaper that regularly published cartoons by Jack Delano, and occasionally illustrations by Irene. La Gaceta newspaper was published by the Spanish government in Puerto Rico from 1806-1902. Jack Delano began filming a documentary about the publication that was never finished. Delano likely acquired this run of original issues in support of the film project.

Subseries VII.3: Magazines and Journals, 1945-1997

Scope and Contents

This subseries contains various magazines and journals collected by Jack and Irene Delano. Included is Que Pasa, a Puerto Rican tourism magazine for which Irene produced graphic designs. Que Pasa is grouped together in chronological order. Other miscellaneous titles are organized chronologically. Magazine clippings maintain original order alphabetically by subject at the end of the subseries.

Series VIII: Audiovisual material, 1950s-1990sScope and Contents

This series contains audiovisual material, all of which has been digitized. Contents include films that Jack and Irene worked on; recordings of Jack's musical works; other musical and film works; some personal recordings; recordings relating to Puerto Rican culture and politics; and a set of recordings by the Vanguardia Revolucionaria Dominicana. Original formats include film, video, open-reel audio, and cassette tape.

Processing Information:Processing Information

As part of the AMI Mellon grant, in fall 2020 existing boxes were reviewed, described at the item-level for digitization, and consolidated by format as follows. AV 1: Phonograph records (12" LPs and 16" transcription discs). AV 2-5: Videocassettes and videotape. AV 6-10: audiocassettes. Audiocassette tapes were numbered. AV 11-17: open-reel audio tapes. Boxes AV 18-20 contain audiocassettes, open-reel audiotapes, and CDs that are duplicates, blanks, and commercial recordings that were not selected for digitization. These boxes are stored off site at ReCAP, and be requested if needed by contacting rbml@columbia.edu.
