Summary

Dennis B. Ryan began collecting cartoons in the early 1980s, ultimately focusing on cartoons related to moments and topics of significance in American history, or on topics of personal interest.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

The collection consists almost entirely of the original artwork created for editorial cartoons that were printed in newspapers or magazines in the United States. There are a few items that include clippings, drafts, or other material, and these are noted in the container list. The vast majority of the artworks are in black and white; items in color are noted in the container list.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

Ryan also kept small slips of paper with available information about the cartoons – name, caption, topic or event, size of the image, date, and the name of the publication – with most of the items in the collection. These slips of paper are usually only slight larger than the line of type: some have been lost over time. Where available, all existing slips for items in a box were retained in one folder in the box. The collection was also appraised at one point, and the appraiser's description of topics frequently differs from the collector's description. Description of individual items in the container list primarily follows the collector's description, but includes additional information gathered from the items and other sources where it was available.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

The collection includes cartoons related to civil rights, the Cold War, drugs, elections, economic issues, energy, foreign affairs, government, labor, politics and political figures,

Prohibition, the space program, sports, and women's rights, as well as pieces related to specific events. The collection also includes cartoons related to wars and conflicts, including the Spanish-American War, World War I, World War II, Korean War, Vietnam War, and the Persian Gulf War, as well as conflicts in Afghanistan, Asia, Iraq, Kosovo, Lebanon, and Libya.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

The collection also includes memorials for a wide variety of persons, including cartoons printed following the deaths of Fred Astaire, Jack Benny, Edgar Bergen, Irving Berlin, Alexander Calder, Charlie Chaplin, Walt Disney, Thomas Edison, Albert Einstein, Gerald Ford, Judy Garland, Jim Henson, Herbert Hoover, J. Edgar Hoover, J.P. Morgan, John F. Kennedy, Robert F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Jr., John Lennon, Richard Nixon, Laurence Olivier, Elvin Presley, Jackie Robinson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jack Ruby, Joseph Stalin, Harry Truman, Malcolm X, John Wayne, and Alvin York.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Arrangement

This collection is arranged in one series. Items are arranged alphabetically by artist's last name, and then chronologically.
