Biographical / Historical

Caroline King was the Education Director at the Rensselaer County Historical Society. In the late 1980s, she was conducting research on the 19th century New York architect Henry C. Dudley for a possible doctoral dissertation. By 1990, she was no longer pursuing a doctoral dissertation and donated her research files on Dudley to Avery Drawings & Archives.

The English-born Henry C. Dudley (1813-1894) was an architect practicing in New York during the mid to late 19th century. Dudley was a founding member of the American Institute of Architects. His notable commissions include Saint Paul's Episcopal Cathedral in Syracuse New York and Trinity Church in Elmira, New York.
