Biographical sketch

Russian general who commanded the Northeastern Front of the White Armies during the Civil War.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Content

Papers include correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, subject files, maps, and printed materials. Cataloged correspondents include Georgii L'vov, Anton Kartashev, and Petr Struve. The correspondence concerns to a large extent IUdenich's aid to fellow emigres in France during the 1920s and 1930s. Manuscripts include a memoir about IUdenich by his widow, Aleksandra, and Iudenich's diary from 1919. Included also are two sets of the files of the Northwestern Army from 1919-20, and additional subject files concerning the Civil War. There are financial records of both the Northwestern Army and of Iudenich himself. The photographs are of the Caucasian front, which Iudenich commanded in 1914-17. Maps are of both the Caucasian front in World War I and of the Baltic region and the campaigns of the Northwestern Army.
