Biographical sketch

Simonovich served as an officer in the Imperial and White armies and later lived in France and Belgium.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Content

The collection contains Simonovich's correspondence, manuscripts, documents, subject files, and printed materials. There are letters to Simonovich from a friend who had settled in Yugoslavia, A. S. Poplavskĭ, and Belgian postcards from before World War I. Manuscripts deal with Simonovich's experiences in the Imperial army on the Caucasian front and in the White army under general Slashchev. There are also essays devoted to the Russian emigre colonies in Belgium and in France. The subject files concern the Belgian section of the Gallipolian Society (Ob"shchestvo Gallipolitsev) and Russian emigre events in Belgium. The printed materials include chiefly miscellaneous journals and clippings, some with articles by Simonovich.
