Summary

Correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, a document, a subject file, printed materials and scrapbooks of Tarydina. The correspondence includes letters from Rodion Berezov, Georgiï

Grebenshchikov, Ol'ga Spesivtseva, Aleksandra Tolstaia and Iakov Tsvibak. While most of the manuscripts are Tarydina's own, there is an essay by Nataliia Logunova, and a copy of one by Maksimilian Voloshin about Tarydina's father, General Nikandr Marks. There are several dozen photographs that chronicle emigre theatrical events she produced during the 1940's in New York in collaboration with her husband, Iakov Shigorin. There is a 1917 contract with the Bol'shoi Letni Teatr and a subject file concerning Tarydina's father. The clippings and scrapbooks relate to Tarydina's theatrical career at the Moscow Malyi Theater, in Odessa and in New York as well as to her essays published in the emigre press.
