Scope and Content

Congressional papers consisting of correspondence memoranda, speeches, reports, photographs and printed materials relating to her terms in Congress. The collection contains general correspondence and administrative files, as well as extensive subject files on a wide variety of topics with which Abzug was involved while in Congress. Also included are Legislative files, being the chronological files of background material for legislation considered on the House floor, and printed versions of legislation by Abzug and others. The Casework Files, relating to Abzug's advocacy on behalf of constituents involved in civil rights, housing, military, employment and related cases, are closed. Among the major correspondents are Carl Albert, Abraham D. Beame, Hugh L. Carey, Gerald R. Ford, Edward I. Koch, John V. Lindsay, Nelson A. Rockefeller, and Gloria Steinem. Materials added in 1981 include: draft transcripts of an oral history, appointment books, speeches and subject files (particularly on privacy and freedom of information) all interfiled in the collection and campaign materials press releases and newspaper clippings.

Series VI: Legislative Files

Subseries VI.1: Legislative Floor Files

Scope and Contents

Legislative Floor Files. Chronological files of material relating to legislation considered on the House floor. Included are correspondence, drafts of amendments, statements and testimony, memoranda, Whip advisories, floor calendars, printed versions of legislation, and related material. In some cases, partial contents notes are included on the Folders as they were on the original Folders, to indicate some of the important issues dealt with in a particular week; these are in no way indications of the complete contents. The files are arranged by week through 1974 and thereafter by date.

Subseries XVI.4: Women USA Hotline Tapes

Scope and Contents

Everything is digitized from Endless cassettes - these are short-running cassettes designed to play on a loop. These run from roughly 30-90 seconds in duration. They seem to mostly be recordings of Abzug or others discussing recent news items to be played for her telephone hotline. There are often multiple tapes within each item. These multiples generally have the same content, but they're not exact duplicates, they're probably multiple takes or different versions. As a result, we've kept all of the files. There are also a number of tapes that could only be partially transferred, so the files are just a short fragment of the original.
