Summary

---

Correspondence, manuscripts, lectures, lecture notes, and subject files of Russian-American historian Mikhail Karpovich. The correspondence includes letters from former ministers of the Russian Provisional Government Alexander Kerensky, Aleksandr Guchkov, and the Provisional Government's ambassador to the United States, Boris Bakhmeteff. There are letters from Social Revolutionaries Nikolai Avksent'ev and Vladimir Zenzinov, Mensheviks Boris Nikolaevsky and Nikolai Vol'skii. There is also extensive correspondence with contemporary historians such as Michael Florinsky, Sergei Pushkarev, George Vernadsky, and Karpovich's students, who included Marc Raeff and Richard Pipes. Much of the correspondence concerns Karpovich's involvement in emigre affairs and the promotion of Russian studies in the United States, including such institutions as the Bakhmeteff Archive, the "Novyi zhurnal," and the Chekhov Publishing House. There is correspondence with prominent authors and literary critics including Mark Aldanov, Ivan Bunin, Aleksei Remizov, Gleb Struve and Roman Gul'. Of special importance are letters and poems by Vladimir Nabokov.

Scope and Contents

---

Manuscripts include material from writers Maria Germanova and Pavel Mil'ukov, as well as translations by Oscar Jaszi. Detailed lecture notes on Russian History in English and Russian cover the years 1935-1957. There are also notes on non-Russian subjects. The subject files include materials on Boris Bakhmeteff, Alexander Kerensky, Vladimir Nabokov and Karpovich's work as editor of Pavel Mil'ukov's books. They also include Karpovich's bibliography cards and material on Russian archives and organizations. The printed materials and clippings are generally related to Slavic Studies.

Processing Information

Correspondence Processed ejs 08/--/89.

Processing Information

A small amount of reprocessing work was done at the same time the finding aid was converted to EAD. The collection's title was changed to better reflect the multiple formats of materials included in the collection after multiple additions to the original accession of correspondence. The collection was also previously described in two parts: Part I (7 boxes) and Part II (36 boxes). The collection was intellectually re-arranged into six series, and box numbering was revised to a single sequence: Box 1 of the Part II was changed to Box 8, and so on. Items were not physically rearranged. The collection's biographical note was also expanded, and related materials notes were added.
