Historical Note

In 1954, Columbia celebrated the bicentennial of its founding under the royal charter of 1754. A whole year's worth of conferences, concerts, convocations and events were put together to mark the occasion. There were exhibitions, locally and abroad, and network television and radio shows centered on the Bicentennial them "Man's Right to Knowledge and the Free Use Thereof."

Summary

This collection contains the records from the Office of the Bicentennial, which was led by Richard B. Powell, David Loth and James L. Malfetti. This collection includes the correspondence originating in or received by the Office of the Bicentennial, the office files, and the subject files. In addition to the Office of the Bicentennial records, this collection includes the materials collected by and/or transferred to the Columbiana Collection, under the curation of Milton Halsey Thomas. This includes the conference transcripts, papers, convocation records, and an extensive collection of printed materials.

Collection Inventory

Series I: Chron Files, 1947-1957

Scope and Contents

This series contains the chronological correspondence files of the Office of the Bicentennial, which was led by Richard B. Powell, David Loth and James L. Malfetti. There is also correspondence from, or received by, Dean Lawrence Chamberlain as chairman of the Committee on Convocations and Public Ceremonies and most of the correspondence between conference chairmen and conference participants. However, the 1955 Status of the Files (see under Series V, Index and Instruction for Files) notes that the Chron Files "have been thoroughly culled so that what remains is of possible significance for history, or validation of records." The largest amount of correspondence relating to the Bicentennial which is not represented in this collection is that of the Public Information Division which was under the direction of the Office of Development. Those files can be found in the Columbia University Bicentennial Collection \(MS#0251\).

Series IV: Printed Materials, 1950-1956

Scope and Contents

Printed materials refers to press releases, programs, newsletters, menus, seating charts, newspaper clippings, invitations, tickets, as well as published radio program transcripts, journal issues, discussion guides, speeches, and even the history of the Bicentennial year. This series contains materials collected by and/or transferred to the Columbiana Collection. Milton Halsey Thomas, the Columbiana Curator, served on the Bicentennial Public Relations Committee. This series also includes the Guest Book for the Bicentennial year and materials related to the special convocation in honor of the neighborhood's tradesmen and vendors. Materials are organized alphabetically.

Series V: Subject Files, 1949-1957*Scope and Contents

In each Subject File, there is a page (or pages) with the dates and brief descriptions of the contents of correspondence pertaining to that particular subject which can be found in the Chron Files. In addition, the subject folders contain "selected materials helpful to an understanding of the details for a particular activity. These materials may be duplicated in the Chronological File, but finding important items relating to one activity assembled in one place is of considerable help to search and research." The subject files are in alphabetical order, with the materials in each file in chronological order.
