Biographical / Historical

The Division of Student Affairs (formerly known as the Office of Student Affairs and the Dean of Student Affairs Office) was created to assist Columbia College and Columbia Engineering undergraduate students throughout their time on campus and beyond. Supporting the academic missions of Columbia College and Columbia Engineering, Columbia Student Affairs develops programs and services that foster community, ensure a respectful and inclusive environment, and enrich the overall student experience at Columbia. It also provides support to parents, families, and alumni, as well as collaborates with other University offices.
