Biographical / Historical

This Record Group contains the records of Human Rights Watch/Americas Watch (AmW). Established in 1981 as an outgrowth of the Helsinki Watch Committee, the AmW division promotes human rights in the Western Hemisphere. It concerns itself particularly with harassed human rights groups in repressive countries. AmW, for example, assists Latin American monitoring organizations in disseminating information about oppressive practices. It also mounts external pressure within countries to ensure human rights protections through sponsored human rights missions and publishes reports on their findings.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Biographical / Historical

The Americas Watch division is funded by private foundations, citizens, and does not accept government funds. As a strictly non-political, non-partisan group, it investigates and attempts to report objectively on human rights conditions. Its policy recommendations, in turn, relate solely to ways in which the United States can assist human rights monitors in countries with poor human rights records.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Summary

Materials include correspondence and e-mail communications, mission reports, testimonies and interviews, addresses and contact lists, confidential interoffice memos, legal and advocacy material, internal planning and policy material, declassified government and United Nations documents, published and unpublished human rights reports from individuals and fellow non-governmental organizations (NGOs), press clippings and news releases, and maps. Another category of documents consists of HRW reports and briefing papers, as well as press releases and open letters to heads of state, governments and various government agencies.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Summary

Materials related to missions contain unpublished information on sources, cases, and the state of affairs in various countries. They include professional and personal mission notes taken by AmW country researchers during investigative missions, testimonies by and interviews with victims of various human rights abuses, pre-mission and post-mission memos, addresses and contact lists.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Summary

Thematically, these documents deal with the various political and social transitions in the Americas. The papers comprise such human rights advocacy initiatives as the attempt to alleviate the plight of political prisoners and refugees; the promotion of freedom of expression; and the suppression of political violence.

Arrangement

This Record Group is arranged in 4 series.

Series 1: Aryeh Neier, 1978-1989

Scope and Contents

This series documents Executive Director, Aryeh Neier's efforts from 1981 to 1989 to establish Americas Watch (AmW) as a full operating division of Human Rights Watch (HRW). The series is divided into three subseries: chronological correspondence, country, and general files. The correspondence files span 1981 to 1986 and record AmW's founding and initial human rights projects. Chile, El Salvador and Peru comprise the alphabetically arranged country files. Covering the period 1978 through 1984, these files cover such subjects as anti-terrorism efforts, democratic reform initiatives, and the plight of political prisoners and refugees. Arranged alphabetically, the general files comprise mainly AmW fundraising data, press releases, and staff memorandums.

Series 2: Cynthia Brown, 1980-1994

Scope and Contents

Cynthia Browns initial work as Associate Director for Americas Watch stressed investigative missions to El Salvador, Guatemala and Colombia. In 1983, she inaugurated yearly trips to monitor the human rights situation in Chile. Extending from 1980 to 1992, the alphabetically arranged country files, therefore, emphasize Chile. Other nations include Argentina, Bahamas, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Puerto Rico, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Suriname, Uruguay, and Venezuela. Organized alphabetically and running from 1982 to 1994, the general files predominantly contain such administrative files as inter-office correspondence, memorandums, press releases, reports, and schedules. The alphabetical professional files hold correspondence (1984; 1987-1989) with human rights groups, advocates, and Congressional testimony. Finally, the subject files include labor rights, police targets, the United Nations, U.S. policy, and women's issues.

^ Return to Table of ContentsSeries 3: Guatemala Files, 1966-1990*Scope and Contents

Divided into three alphabetically arranged subseries, this series encompasses general files and the work of two individuals involved in AmW's Guatemala projects. Represented in the first sub series (1966-1988) are the general files. The second subseries (1978-1984) holds Eliecer S. Valencia's Guatemalan refugee project files collected during the research for his volume, "Guatemalan Refugees in Mexico, 1980-1984" (AmW, 1984). Embodied in the third subseries are Frank E. Howard's efforts as a legal consultant (1989-1990) on behalf of AmW handling asylum cases.

^ Return to Table of ContentsSeries 4: Mary Jane Camejo, 1971-1994*Scope and Contents

The series is divided into two alphabetically arranged subseries of country and general files. Mary Jane Camejo was an AmW Research Associate, who focused on Latin American politics specifically in Cuba, the Dominican Republic and Haiti. The country files reflect this specialization with the largest group of material associated with these three nations. The files document the plight of Cuban artists, dissidents and political refugees, and Haitian sugar cane labors. Other represented countries include Antigua, Bahamas, Belize, Costa Rica, Grenada, Guyana, Jamaica, Paraguay, Peru, Puerto Rico, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Suriname, Trinidad and Tobago, and Uruguay. The general files consist primarily of human rights law and policy reports.
